

Parental Responsibility

Parents have a legal duty to ensure that their child receives full time education. You must ensure that your child attends school regularly and on time.

You will be committing an offence if your child fails to attend their place of education regularly and punctually, and if your child's school has not given authorisation for the absences or late arrival.

You can be prosecuted for this offence.

The High Court has confirmed that schools, not parents authorise absence from school. The final decision lies with the Head Teacher.

A parent is:

- Any natural parent, whether married or not
- Any parent who has parental responsibility for a child / young person
- Any person who has care of a child / young person i.e. lives with and looks after the child

The Anti-Social Behaviour Act

The Act gives powers to Local Authorities and other designated bodies to issue penalty notices to parents or carers for their child's non-attendance at school.

Penalty Notices were introduced under the Act because reducing absence from school is extremely important.

Missing school can:

- Damage children's achievements
- Disrupt the school's routines
- Affect other children's learning
- Leave children at risk of anti-social behaviour and youth crime

Above all, missing school can seriously affect children's life chances and opportunities.

A Penalty Notice is an alternative to prosecution. Receiving a notice means you have to pay a fixed amount of money (fine) for your child's non-attendance at school, and avoids court action so long as it is paid in full.

Other Information

There is no right of appeal once a fine has been issued. We can only withdraw a fine where:

- It should not have been issued
- It has been issued to the wrong person
- If it appears to the Local Authority that it contains material errors

If you believe that one of the above circumstances applies, you should contact the Local Authority immediately with evidence to support your view, or if you wish to make general representations.

Should you require further advice and support about attendance issues contact either your school / academy or an Education Welfare Officer in the ONE Point Service on 03000 26 11 11.

Fixed Penalty Notices

A Penalty Notice is sent by first class post to your home and can be issued where unauthorised absences occur due to:

- Holidays in term time
- Persistent late arrival after the register has closed
- To assist Year 11 pupils to engage in education
- Overt truancy (including pupils found during truancy sweeps)
- Inappropriate, parentally condoned absence.

A fine applies to each parent for each child who fails to attend school regularly. Where two parents / carers are issued with a fine for a child, both fines must be paid.

Payment within 21 days is £60.
Payment doubles to £120 if paid after 21 days
but within 28 days.

If the penalty notice is not paid in full by the end of the 28 day payment period, the Local Authority will bring a prosecution against you for failing to ensure your child's regular attendance at school during the period. We are unable to accept part payments.

Fixed Penalty Notice Triggers

If your child has accrued 10 days or more of unauthorised absence in a maximum 12 school week rolling period, you could receive:

- A warning - requiring you to ensure no further unauthorised absences occur in a 15 school day monitoring period, otherwise you would receive a fine.
- A fine - the warning period does not apply to notices issued due to holidays in term time taken without permission.

Leave of absence in term time
The law states Head Teachers should not grant any leave of absence in term time unless there are exceptional circumstances. If you take a holiday without the school's permission, and this absence amounts to 10 days or more, you could receive a fine.

The Local Authority never takes enforcement action lightly, we would much rather work with parents/carers to improve attendance. However, the Authority will use these powers to ensure that your child attends school regularly. Should you require advice and support about attendance issues contact either your school / academy or an Education Welfare Officer in the ONE Point Service on 03000 261111.
